An Upside-Down Tale Maudie Shackelford, 2013 Jim O'Donnell is travelling with his family on a train journey through central Australia when he spies a giant bird tumbling from the sky. Concerned for the bird's safety, Jim presses the emergency stop button and exits the train in the ensuing confusion. Soon lost in the vast emptiness of the Outback, Jim spots a water tank and makes for it. Suddenly the giant bird Jim had spotted from the train appears, staring at him over the rim of the tank. Has he gone mad with thirst, Jim wonders when he demands that the bird fills a rusty can with water and the bird insists that he says 'Please '? The confused bird proudly introduces himself as GD, the Giant Duck from Outer Mongolia. Jim and GD become unlikely comrades when Jim fashions a contraption that enables him to be carried along by GD. A fierce wind blows them across the Atlantic Ocean. They tumble down near a shantytown, close to Johannesburg. There they meet Tupence, an orphan whose family has died from AIDS. When Tupence helps Jim and GD escape from a gang of local delinquents, he too is swept up into the skies on GD's back. It becomes a life changing experience for the trio as they head off on the adventure of a lifetime in An Upside-Down Tale.

The Generation That Saved America Bettye B. Burkhalter, 2010-12 History, Romance, & Destiny The Third Novel in the Trilogy Dr. John Burel's great-grandson, John Harrison, was a toddler when his family pioneered from South Carolina to Mississippi. As a youngster, he proudly helped his family bellwether the Civil War and rebirth of the New South. By the early 1900s, he was a prosperous farmer and landowner. Time passed quickly, and too soon he was an old man. Join Grandpa and feel the biting north wind as he shuffled onto the front porch, cupped his hands around his mouth, and shouted, It's hog-killing day! Watch the bustling families rush toward the big house to slaughter enough hogs to carry them through the winter. Summer finally arrived and brought old-time gospel singing and preaching to their country church on the hill. Mama rose early on Sunday morning and filled her basket with fried chicken, biscuits, baked sweet potatoes, and fried apple pies. After preaching there was going to be another dinner-on-the-ground. Everyone was excited. Without a doubt, those were the good years. But all that changed. Walk down the dismal road with the Burrell family as they helplessly watched the reckless Roaring Twenties and Great Depression bring a flourishing economy and their comfortable lifestyle to a grinding halt. Feel Grandpa's pain and humiliation when the bank called in his Deed-of-Trust, and he was forced to sell his last 640-acre farm and home for a few dollars. Sit for awhile and listen to his grandson, Cecil Allen Burrell, The Man Himself, as his thought-provoking stories detail how they all survived those disastrous years. With their eyes on the future, John Harrison's children and grandchildren navigated their way back into prosperity and eventually reclaimed their part of the American dream - the same dream brought to America by their Great-Grandfather, Dr. Jean-Baptiste Elzéar Burel in 1778.

The Adventures of Patty and Annabel Marcella Lansdowne, 2009-03 The Adventures of Patty and Annabel: Apache Lake and the Chakras is part of a set of adventures about Patty the yellow Lab and Annabel the springer spaniel. The two dogs go camping and find a pair of mallard ducks. The ducks teach the dogs about their seven major chakras. This set of children's books can be purchased without fear of negative or questionable content. Each adventure is sweet and fun to read. They also include an important and light-hearted lesson intended to educate young children about alternative healing.

Falcon Fever Tim Gallagher, 2009-05-22 The ornithologist and award-winning author of The Grail Bird shares his love of falconry in this "boundary-stretching memoir" (Kirkus Reviews). "To me, falconry at its highest level is an art form in which the canvas is the entire sky." What is it about falconry that inspires such avid devotees? Tim Gallagher has pondered this question since he first became obsessed with the sport at the age of twelve. In Falcon Fever, he interweaves memoir, history, and travelogue as he takes us along on his many adventures—mallard hunting in upstate New York with his falcon MacDuff; traveling to Wyoming and the Scottish Highlands to visit and learn from other falconers; attending the annual field meet of the North American Falconers' Association; and making his personal pilgrimage to the southern Italian lands and landmarks of his hero Frederick II, the thirteenth-century Holy Roman Emperor who wrote the classic text On the Art of Hunting with Birds. From his early use of falconry to escape a troubled childhood to the vibrant, modern community that continues to practice the centuries-old sport of kings, Gallagher offers both a knowledgeable introduction to these birds of prey and an inspiring personal story. “A series of exhilarating, often poignant stories. . . . He weaves an eloquent life story around his life with hawks and falcons.” —Houston Chronicle “The ideal tonic to reinvigorate a nation distracted by laptops from its love for its natural heritage.” —Robert F. Kennedy Jr. “A poignant, introspective volume.” —Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

The Nipple of the Queen C.D. Hopkins, 2014-03 You ruined my life, the departing husband tells his wife in the opening story. Like Circe, she wonders how she came to have such terrible powers--and whether she really has them. In other stories, a young boy tries to understand why he has lost the affection of a much-loved uncle, an elderly couple battle like siblings, and a middle-aged woman is forced to confront the fact that her mother loved a close friend more than she loved her daughter. Love misunderstood, often doubted, often disappointing--the characters in these twenty stories struggle to make sense of it. To varying degrees they succeed, but all find it a difficult and dangerous enterprise. And some wonder whether love is even necessary.
